Speaker's Bio:

Rev. Dr. Nancy C. Grim Hunter is a life-long distinguished educator and Deacon in the United Methodist Church. Born into a missionary teaching family with 18 adopted exceptional needs children, Dr. Grim Hunter has answered her Deacon's heart calling of compassion and justice through education and advocacy for at-risk and underserved children and adults. She has earned a B.S. Chemistry from Ohio University, a M.S. Chemistry and Education from Miami University of Ohio, a Ph.D. in Curriculum & Instruction - Science Education & Chemistry from the University of Illinois at Chicago, and Deacon Studies from Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary.

Currently tenured in the College of Education and appointed as a full Professor and Dean of Assessment in the College of Pharmacy at Chicago State University, Rev. Dr. Grim Hunter serves on the Campus Ministry team. Pastor Nancy maintains her local church connection at St. John's UMC of Oak Park. Rev. Grim Hunter recently received a 2016 NIC Creative Ministry Award to support the Children and Family Ministry Center at St. John's UMC which serves the Filipino American immigrant community as well as families in the local homeless community. Pastor Nancy was recently appointed as chair of the Children's Ministry of the Northern Illinois Conference of the UMC following two years as chair of the NIC UMC Children's Table initiative.
